

MR. CHRISTIE BOOK AWARDS (AGE 7 AND UNDER)

The Word for Home

Joan Clark

CHILD FICTION Cla

A moving story, set in pre-Confederation Newfoundland, of one girl's quest to save her family – and to find a home.

The Secret Life of Owen Skye

Alan Cumyn

CHILD PAPERBACK Cum

For Owen Skye, everyday life is full of danger and mystery. Thank goodness for Andy and Leonard. When life gets crazy, it's good to have brothers on your side.

The Several Lives of Orphan Jack

Sarah Ellis

CHILD FICTION Ell

In all of his years at the Opportunities School for Orphans and Foundlings, Jack has managed to stay out of trouble. When he turns twelve suddenly his life is nothing but trouble!

The Little Rooster and the Diamond Button

Celia Barker Lottridge

CHILD 398.2 Lot

One day a little rooster who is pecking on the road finds a magic diamond button. An evil sultan desperately covets it even though his palace is filled with precious stones.

The Chicken Cat

Stephanie McLellan

CHILD PICTURE McL

A shivering orange kitten is abandoned in an untidy barn where he is “adopted” by a kindly chicken. With little food or sunlight, Merlin fails to grow and thrive, but the two animals form a close bond.

Biscuits in the Cupboard

Barbara Nichol

CHILD 811.54 Nic

A lazy dog is just one of the many confident canine characters you'll meet in this whimsical collection of rhymes and poems that reflect the inner musings of these cherished pets.

Sunwing

Kenneth Opper

CHILD PAPERBACK Opp

The perfect adventure for a noble hero – fast-paced, cliff hanging action.

Claire's Gift

Maxine Trottier

CHILD PICTURE Tro

Claire is sent to the small village of Cheticamp on Cape Breton Island, to visit her great aunt. Tante Marie is kind and the people of Cheticamp are friendly, but Claire feels so lonely she will not speak and it seems nothing can cheer her up.

121 West 14th Street
North Vancouver, BC V7M 1P2
Phone: 604-998-3480
Website: www.nvcl.ca

May 2006