

THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF NORTH VANCOUVER

BYLAW NO. 4135

A Bylaw to prohibit the keeping of dangerous creatures.

The Council of The Corporation of the City of North Vancouver, in open meeting assembled, enacts as follows:

1. No person shall keep, harbour or permit to remain upon any premises within the Municipality of the City of North Vancouver which are held by such person as owner, tenant, occupier or which are used by such person, any poisonous or dangerous reptile or other dangerous creature.
2. Any person who violates any provision of this Bylaw shall be guilty of an offence and shall, upon conviction thereof before a magistrate, on the oath or affirmation of any creditable witness, forfeit and pay, at the discretion of the said magistrate, a pecuniary penalty not exceeding the sum of Two hundred and Fifty ($250.00) Dollars, together with the sum of costs or without costs; and in default of payment thereof forthwith, it shall be lawful for such magistrate by warrant under his hand and seal to cause the said pecuniary penalty and costs or costs only, if not paid forthwith to be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender and in case thereof being no distress or no sufficient distress found out of which the said penalty and costs can be levied, it shall and may be lawful for the magistrate to commit the offender to the common gaol of the County of Vancouver at Oakalla in the County of Westminster, in the Province of British Columbia or the nearest lock-up house for a term of thirty (30) days or some part thereof unless the said several sums and costs and charges of the commitment and of the conveying of the said offender to the said common gaol are sooner paid.
3. This Bylaw may be known and cited for all purposes as “Dangerous Creatures Prohibition Bylaw, 1970”.
