A right of interment can only be surrendered back to the City. It cannot be sold privately. No refund shall be made for the right of interment for a columbaria niche where the niche door has been engraved.

If the purchaser cancels the right of interment within 30 days of entering into an interment right contract, they will be refunded the full amount paid less the cost of specially ordered goods or services rendered.

After 30 days from the date of entering into an interment right contract no refund shall be made of any care fund contribution collected. Fees associated with the removal of any memorial on the lot, must be paid before a refund is issued.

The refund is calculated as follows:

- a) If the lot was purchased on or before June 18, 2006:
The amount refunded will equal 75% of the fees set out in North Vancouver Cemetery Bylaw No. 7667 for the resident lot fee (lot license) and less the administration fee as specified in Schedule ‘A’ of North Vancouver Cemetery Bylaw, 2011, No. 8109, as amended from time to time.
- b) If the lot was purchased on or after June 19, 2006:
