VETERANS' WEEK

Whereas

Canada has grown into a vibrant country, a nation shaped by its people, their courage, and their commitment to protecting and defending human rights whenever and wherever they are threatened;

Whereas

Peace and Freedom are not just words; they are values and beliefs worthy of sacrifice yesterday, today and tomorrow;

Whereas

this year is the 80th anniversary of the Dieppe Raid, in which almost 5,000 Canadians came ashore on the French coast in Operation Jubilee which led to tremendous sacrifice, and;

Whereas

Canadian sacrifice and valour will be remembered forever as a rich legacy of peace, freedom and identity;

Now Therefore

I, Linda Buchanan, Mayor of the City of North Vancouver, do hereby proclaim November 5 to 11, 2022 as Veterans' Week in the City of North Vancouver, the traditional territories of the Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh Nations.

INDIGENOUS VETERANS' DAY

Whereas

on Indigenous Veterans' Day, we commemorate Indigenous veterans who, throughout their history of service, have made incredible contributions to Canada and countries around the world;

Whereas

Indigenous peoples have a long and deep history of military service. Approximately 12,000 First Nations, Inuit and Metis people served in the First and Second World Wars as well as the Korean War. Today, there are as many as 2,700 Indigenous peoples in uniform;

Whereas

among those who returned from combat overseas, many faced discrimination such as denial of benefits, loss of Indian Status and expropriation of their land. For generations Indigenous veterans were not recognized for their service; and the City of North Vancouver acknowledges Indigenous veterans, whose bravery, courage, service and sacrifice helps protect the peace and freedom we enjoy today. We pause, remember and honour all Indigenous veterans who have served and continue to serve.

Whereas

Now Therefore

I, Linda Buchanan, Mayor of the City of North Vancouver, do hereby proclaim November 8, 2022 as Indigenous Veterans' Day in the City of North Vancouver, the traditional territories of the Squamish and Tsleil-Waututh Nations.

So proclaimed on November 7, 2022
