WHO MAY VOTE?
To vote in the City of North Vancouver election, you must:
• be a Canadian citizen;
• be 18 years or older on General Voting Day;
• have been a resident of BC for at least 6 months immediately before the day of registration;
• be a resident of the City of North Vancouver for at least 30 days immediately before the day of registration; and
• not disqualified by any enactment from voting in an election or otherwise disqualified by law.

If you own property in the City of North Vancouver, but don’t reside in the city (non-resident property elector), you may also qualify to vote.

Corporations, businesses and permanent residents of Canada (landed immigrants) who have not yet become Canadian citizens are not eligible to vote.

VOTING DAY REGISTRATION
The City of North Vancouver uses the Provincial Voters List as its official list of registered voters. If you are not on the City voters list, you can still register when you vote. Simply provide 2 pieces of identification (at least one with a signature) to prove identity and place of residence. For example: driver’s licence, vehicle registration, ID card, utility bill, rent receipt, tax bill, credit card or BC Services Card.

Non-Resident Property Electors must produce 2 pieces of identification (at least one with a signature) and proof of property ownership. A property tax notice, assessment notice or certificate of title issued by the BC Land Title Office are acceptable proof of ownership. If applicable, written consent from the other property owners must be provided.

MAIL BALLOT VOTING
You can vote by mail if you have a physical disability, illness or injury that affects your ability to vote in person, or if you expect to be absent from the City on General Voting Day and during all Advance Voting opportunities.
