1. INTRODUCTION

“OFFICIAL COMMUNITY PLAN BYLAW, 2014, NO. 8400”

To adopt a new Official Community Plan for the City of North Vancouver. This bylaw would have the effect of rescinding the current City of North Vancouver Official Community Plan Bylaw, 2002, No. 7425, and replacing it with a new Official Community Plan, including an updated Regional Context Statement. The Official Community Plan is the City’s long-range planning tool for guiding the growth and development of the City. It includes a broad vision for the community’s future, with supporting goals and objectives. The Regional Context Statement outlines how the City’s Plan aligns with the Metro Vancouver Regional Growth Strategy.

The Official Community Plan applies to the entire City. Major policy areas and chapters within the Official Community Plan include:
