

The Shipyards COVID-19 Programming Guidelines

The following guidelines are derived from the Province of BC and Vancouver Coastal Health for all gatherings taking place during the COVID-19 pandemic.

OVERVIEW

To support community well being, local businesses and the use of outdoor spaces, the City of North Vancouver has created temporary booking guidelines for The Shipyards during COVID-19. These guidelines allow for fair and balanced use of the public realm and give due consideration to community access and economic recovery. All programs and activities must adhere to both the temporary guidelines and the Shipyards & Foot of Lonsdale Events & Rental Policy unless otherwise indicated.

To help prevent the spread of COVID-19, local businesses and programming at The Shipyards are expected to comply with recommendations and orders from the Provincial Health Officer (pursuant to sections 30, 31, 32 and 39 (3) of the Public Health Act, S.B.C. 2008). These recommendations include limiting the number of people to no more than 50 present in an area, practicing safe physical distancing.

We are currently accepting applications on a first come, first served basis for the month of July only. Permit applications for the month of July include a maximum of 3 bookings per week for any given business. Please note that this opportunity is based on a case by case review that would include variables such as activity, location availability and meeting all parameters required including safety protocols. Permit approval is not guaranteed.

LOCATION AND HOURS

Venue booking requests are considered on a month-by-month basis.

- Shipyard Commons – covered outdoor 12,000 square foot venue
- Cates Deck – 5,000 square foot deck space

BOOKING CONSIDERATIONS

The Shipyards is a popular community space which has seen an increase in casual use due to COVID-19 restrictions. The City continues to support casual use of the site and reserves the right to restrict the number and frequency of bookings to ensure a balance of accessibility to the spaces for the general public.

While every attempt will be made to accommodate all eligible requests, if there are any conflicting requests to book spaces within The Shipyards, the following allocation priorities will be applied:

1. First Priority - City produced, co-produced or sponsored program including programs managed by City agencies, such as North Vancouver Recreation and Culture
2. Second Priority - City businesses or non-profits located within The Shipyards and Lower Lonsdale
3. Businesses and community groups outside of the Lower Lonsdale area

Applications must demonstrate a benefit to both the community and local economy. All COVID-19 requirements must be met and approved by appropriate officials prior to the programming date.

All vendors are required to fill out the Event Application Form.
